Introduction :

Naxalism is a very important subject for India in so far as its internal security is concerned. The national mindset that existed earlier and continues to exist today is that Naxalism is a socio-economic problem. The nation continues to believe that it is a law and order problem of the State. Hence the Constitution prevails and prohibits the Central Government from getting involved in it. The result is that the problem has remained unattended and has grown to the extent that we are witnessing today. In March 2006, Prime Minister Manmohan Singh, while addressing Chief Ministers of Nine naxal affected States, mentioned that Naxalism constitutes the biggest internal security threat to India. This was the first official recognition of the problem. This was followed by the Prime Minister's address on 15th August in the same year where he mentioned that the country is facing serious challenges from terrorism and Naxalism. Thereafter the problem that Naxalism poses to India has been acknowledged on several forums. However, it is saddening to note that there has been no serious effort to quell the menace of Naxalism. Terrorism has escalated into a major threat to international peace and harmony in India too, it has assumed draconian proportion in recent time. Naxalism has escalated in to a major threat to international peace and harmony. In India too, it has assumed draconian proportions in recent times. It has proved to be unending enemy of mankind. Historical events like war, partition, fundamentalism etc. are some to the prime responsible factors. Politicization of terrorism has further added fuel to fire. Regionalism, inequality, communal feelings have be gotten various type of militancy in India and aboard.

The proposed one day national level conference on Naxalism : historical & Social Analysis would make aware the teachers, researchers and student of social sciences with the recent research on assessment of impact of various internal security problem. The aims & objectives of such seminar are as follows.

- To understand the nature and reasons of Indian Naxalist Movement.
- To study the effects of Naxalism on Indian Democratic culture
- To understand the vital causes and consequences behind the emergence of Indian naxalist movement.
- To study about the problems of the peoples in naxal affected areas and their encounter with Naxalism
- To create awareness amongst society about naxalist and also to make them avail of idealism, violence, and divination of society.
- To discuss about the support to naxalist movement by politician and also to know about their intellectual and economic power to stimulate naxalism movement
- To study and the role of Naxalist behind the movement of Naxalist.
- To think about their thoughts, involvement, dual policy try to find out their solutions
- To discuss the role of Naxalism in Maharashtra by researchers, teachers, delegates and eminent personalities.
- The seminar is aimed at causative analysis of Naxalism and to discuss at length remedial measures to be adopted.

The Conference definitely useful to upgrade the knowledge of researchers in social sciences and to create awareness amongst the participants regarding the vital problems of Indian Naxalist Movement.

Releasing proceeding of one Day national Conference on Naxalism : Historical & Social Analysis

Session II : Key-Note Address

The second session was started after the tea break at 11:30 am. in seminar hall of the college. Dr. Jaideo Dole (BAMU, Aurangabad) delivered the key-note address on topic Naxalism. The chair person for the session was Dr. Jaideo Dole explains : Faced with such enemies, it goes without saying that the method to be adopted and the predominant pattern of the Chinese revolution cannot be a peaceful one but only through armed struggle. Our enemies do not allow the Chinese people to carry out peaceful activities or to possess any political freedom..... It is erratic to ignore the principles of armed struggles, revolutionary wars, guerilla warfares and political work in the army.

Mao Tse

Tung

Faced with such enemies, questions arise concerning the special revolutionary bases. The great imperialist power and their reactionary allied armies in China have always indefinitely occupied the important Chinese cities. If the revolutionary force refuses to compromise with foreign imperialism and its servile underlings, but contrarily struggles to the very end, and if the revolutionary force is to accumulate and nurture its own strength is not yet ascertained, then it must turn the backward remote areas into progressive strong bases, turning them into great military, political, economic and cultural revolutionary strongholds. Then from these strongholds the revolutionary force can start to drive out the malicious enemies based on the large cities encroaching upon the villages; also from these strongholds the revolutionary force may, through prolonged struggles, gradually achieve total success.

Dr. Jaideo Dole addressing in conference on One Day National Conference on Naxalism : Historical & Social Analysis while key-note address.

First Technical Session

The first plenary lecture start soon after the end of key note address. The chair person of this session was Dr. Pradip Meshram, HOD, Department of Sociology, J.M. Patel College, Bhandara delivering plenary lecture on "Social Analyzing & Reasoning of Naxalism". Dr.meshram focus on naxal movement. Naxal movement is one of the biggest threat in the nation recognised by Indian government. Since last 40-45 years India facing this problem. In the last many years especially from quarter of the last century the violent face of the Naxalism as a movement upraises and challenges the unity and integrity of India. Through the various news papers and electronics media we came to know and observe the violent action done by Naxalites daily, such as murder of innocent citizens, firing encounter with police personal, burning of public properties – offices massacre etc. are their various violent action continuously increasing in the nation. In the last two or three decades their movement gathered momentum in the state of Maharashtra with all their threatening activities. Some region of the state of the Maharashtra becoming very sensitive and without peace, where the routine life of people is shatter daily.

The resource person of first technical session Dr. Shrikant Bhowate, M. B. The chair person of this session was Dr. Beena Sengar, School of Social Science, Dr. BAMU, Aurangabad. Topic is “Adhivasi Asmita : Gandhism & Naxalism In Western Indian Tribal Politics.” Dr. Beena Sengar focus on naxal movement in Tribal “...inside the forests it’s a different story because non-violence, and particularly, Gandhian non-violence in some ways needs an audience. It’s a theatre that needs an audience. ... inside the forests there is no audience. When a thousand police come and surround the forest village in the middle of the night, what are they to do? How are the hungry to go on a hunger strike? How are the people with no money to boycott taxes or foreign goods or do consumer boycotts?

Ben Norton's blog on 'Arundhati Roy, the Naxalites, Gandhi and Non Violence'. The extreme violence the world is experiencing in 21st century is of bit different type? What world now calls it terrorist violence in the post-9/11 situation? In a way violence is violence by whatever name we call it. Wars until twentieth century were representative of aggressive invasions by some countries against the other, or some nations against other nations. However, terrorist violence has two characteristics: one, it is not frontal war (but not guerilla war either) and two, it is more of a reactive violence

The first resource person of first technical session Dr. Kulkarni V.P. HOD, Department of History, Dhonda Maharaj College, Degloor. His topic was "Naxalism : Historical Analysis" The second resource person of first technical session Dr. Varma V.R.S.V.M. Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Pusad. Session IV

In The third session resource person was delivered his speech on the role of voters in Indian democracy. He said that democracy refers to a system of government where the citizens exercise power by voting. Democracy holds a special place in India. Furthermore, India without a doubt is the biggest democracy in the world. Also, the democracy of India is derived from the constitution of India. After suffering at the hands of British colonial rule, India finally became a democratic nation in 1947. Most noteworthy, Indian democracy since independence is infused with the spirit of justice, liberty, and equality.

Dr. Gulhane Pravin said that there is whereas features of democracy. The first and more Importance features are sovereignty because Sovereignty is a vital feature of Indian democracy. Sovereignty refers to the full power of a governing body over itself without outside interference. Moreover, people can exercise power in Indian democracy. Most noteworthy, people of India elect their representatives. Moreover, these representatives remain responsible for common people.

After that he told that the democracy in India works on the principle of political equality. Furthermore, it essentially means all citizens are equal before the law. Most noteworthy, there is no discrimination on the basis of religion, caste, creed, race, sect, etc. Hence, every Indian citizen enjoys equal political rights. Another feature of Indian democracy is federal. Most noteworthy, India is a union of states. Furthermore, the states are somewhat autonomous. Moreover, the states enjoy freedom in certain matters.

In conclusion, the democracy in India is something very precious. Furthermore, it is a gift of the patriotic national leaders to the citizens of India. Most noteworthy, the citizens of this country must realize and appreciate the great value of democracy. The democracy in India is certainly unique in the world.

Session V

After the speech of resource person we were organized valedictory session under the president of our college principle Dr. R.P. Mali sir. Dr. Mali sir told that your vote may not directly elect the president, but if your vote joins enough in your voting district or country, your vote undoubtedly matters when it comes to electoral to electoral results.

लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदार हाच खरा राजा - प्रा.डॉ. प्रवीण गुल्हाने

नवीन नांदेड- लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदार हाच खरा राजा असल्याचे प्रतिपादन प्रा.डॉ.प्रवीण गुल्हाने यांनी केले. भारतीय लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदाराची भूमिका या विषयावर राष्ट्रीय वेबिनार संपन्न झाला त्यावेळी बोलत होते.

इंदिरा गांधी वरिष्ठ महाविद्यालय सिडको, येथे स्वातंत्र्याचा अमृत महोत्सव व राष्ट्रीय मतदार दिवसानिमित्त भारतीय लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदाराची भूमिका या विषयावर राष्ट्रीय वेबिनार संपन्न झाला. भारतीय लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदाराची भूमिका या विषयावर राज्यशास्त्र विभागप्रमुख, महिला महाविद्यालय, अमरावती येथील प्रा. डॉ. प्रवीण गुल्हाने प्रमुख वक्ते म्हणून बोलत होते. ते म्हणाले की, लोकशाहीमध्ये मतदार हा राजा असतो. या राजाने मतदानाच्या दिवशी विवेकसंपन्न, विचारशील, विज्ञानवादी, प्रगल्भ व जागृत राहून मतदान केले पाहिजे, तरच भारतीय लोकशाहीचे भवितव्य उज्वल आहे. जर हा मतदार लोकशाही प्रती उदासीन राहून मतदान करित असेल तर लोकशाहीचे अस्तित्व धोक्यात येणार आहे. भारतातील मतदानाची टक्केवारी कमी असल्याची खंत देखील त्यांनी व्यक्त केली. भारतीय लोकशाही बळकट करण्यासाठी लोकशाहीचे पायमुळ खोलवर रुजली पाहिजे. सर्वसामान्यांना लोकशाही व मतदानाबद्दल आस्था असली पाहिजे असेही मत त्यांनी शेवटी व्यक्त केले.

कार्यक्रमाच्या अध्यक्षीय भाषणात महाविद्यालयाचे प्राचार्य डॉ. राजेंद्र माळी म्हणाले की, भारतीय लोकशाही प्रगत होण्यासाठी व लोकशाहीला जपण्यासाठी सर्वांनी मतदान केले पाहिजे. मतदान करण्यासाठी इतरांना प्रवृत्त केले पाहिजे. राष्ट्रीय मतदान दिवसाचे महत्त्व यावेळी त्यांनी विशद केले. कार्यक्रमाचे सूत्रसंचालन व कार्यक्रमाचे प्रास्ताविक इतिहास विभागप्रमुख प्रा.डॉ.जी.एस. पाटील यांनी केले. कार्यक्रमाच्या प्रास्ताविकामध्ये त्यांनी कार्यक्रमाची भूमिका विशद केली तर प्रमुख पाहुण्यांचा परिचय अर्थशास्त्र विभागप्रमुख, प्रा.डॉ. मोहोकार एच.एस.यांनी करून दिला. आभार प्रा.अभय मनसरे यांनी मानले. महाविद्यालयातील प्राध्यापक, शिक्षकेतर कर्मचारी व विद्यार्थी उपस्थित होते.
